HUNG Sheng-Hsiung Taiwan, 1998

Born in 1998 in Kaohsiung, Lives and works in Taipei.

In his art practice, Hung Sheng-Hsiung works with diverse media, including installation, multimedia, and sculpture to deal with the mediating relations among material. space and the body. He has focused on the plastic realities involved in the subject of sculpture, and has utilized multidimensional language of media to expand the scope of sculpture and propose new ideas, trying to shape a new direction of sculpture and formulate a plastic aesthetics. Hung's creative approaches include sculpting piles of soil, collaging found objects, and creating damages by carving, through which he unearths and reveals spatial-temporal traces made by the changes of a place, turning these traces into his aesthetic conception through his art practice.

Hung Sheng Hsiung's Recent notable solo exhibitions include Landscapes of Fragmented Structures, Mind Set Art Center, Taipei, Taiwan (2024), The Dwelling of Collaboratrs, Waley Art, Taipei, Taiwan (2023): Recent notable group exhibitions include Signal Z, Museum of Contemporary Art, Taipei, Taiwan (2023), Transcodage: Art Surveying Techniques of Maps, Contemporary Culture Lab, Taipei, Taiwan (2021), Greater Taipei Biennial of Contemporary Art: Authentic World, Yo-Chang Art Museum, Taipei, Taiwan (2020), Greater Taipei Biennial of Contemporary Art: Snaps Omni Expo, Yo-Chang Art Museum, Taipei, Taiwan (2019); Awards and recognitions include the TDCC Contemporary Arts Award (2020), S-An Art Award (2023).
